

From: Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov
To: "William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)" <wgibbons@memphis.edu>
Date: 8/27/2018 3:26:47 PM
Subject: Re: Fw: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

5:30. I suggest we go Sunday night and that you participate by phone and/or see if Martin has the capability for you to join by video. You need to call me. Please.

From: "William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)" <wgibbons@memphis.edu>
To: "Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov" <Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov>
Date: 08/27/2018 02:23 PM
Subject: Re: Fw: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

Well, I now have a meeting with the mayor from 1:30-2:15. What time do have to be there ?

Bill Gibbons
Executive Director
Public Safety Institute

The University of Memphis
317 Robison Hall
Memphis, TN 38152
901.385-4232 | memphis.edu

From: Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov <Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov>
Sent: Monday, August 27, 2018 1:54 PM
To: William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)
Subject: Re: Fw: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

Is it OK to confirm for September 17?

From: "William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)" <wgibbons@memphis.edu>
To: "Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov" <Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov>
Date: 08/27/2018 12:02 PM
Subject: Re: Fw: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

Ignore my question. Just saw your answer.

Bill Gibbons

Executive Director

Public Safety Institute

The University of Memphis

317 Robison Hall
Memphis, TN 38152

901.385-4232 | memphis.edu

From: William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)
Sent: Monday, August 27, 2018 12:01 PM
To: Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov
Subject: Re: Fw: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

I guess so. (Am I part of this presentation or just your driver?)

Bill Gibbons

Executive Director

Public Safety Institute

The University of Memphis

317 Robison Hall
Memphis, TN 38152

901.385-4232 | memphis.edu

From: Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov <Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov>
Sent: Monday, August 27, 2018 10:40 AM
To: William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)
Subject: Re: Fw: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

Looking at my calendar, either September 17 or October 22 would be best. October 22 is not a date she mentioned. Shall we just tell her September 17?

From: "William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)" <wgibbons@memphis.edu>
To: Julia Gibbons <julia_gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov>
Date: 08/27/2018 09:47 AM
Subject: Fw: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

Ugh ! These are tough dates.

September 17 would work, but we would need to get up early the next morning and head back. I am introducing David Purkey on September 18 at Rotary. (I have arranged for a substitute for class that day.)

Of course, October 2 is out for both of us.

October 9-10, I am in Orlando for a conference, again having to arrange for a substitute lecturer. (We could do it on October 8. However, you would need to figure out how to get home.)

That leaves October 11, but I believe we leave for Amelia Island on October 12. (I do not know what time. If in the afternoon, we could probably pull it off, but it would not be very pleasant.)

Remind me. Am I part of this talk at Martin ? If not, then you could just arrange this on your own, I guess.

Bill Gibbons

Executive Director

Public Safety Institute

The University of Memphis
317 Robison Hall
Memphis, TN 38152

901.385-4232 | memphis.edu

From: William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)
Sent: Monday, August 27, 2018 8:02 AM
To: William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)
Subject: Fwd: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

Sent from my iPhone

Begin forwarded message:

From: Judy B Cheatham <jcheatham@martinmethodist.edu>
Date: August 26, 2018 at 11:29:41 PM CDT
To: "Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov" <Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov>
Cc: "William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)" <wgibbons@memphis.edu>, "jhenryjr@pulaskilaw.com" <jhenryjr@pulaskilaw.com>, "Elizabeth D. Bass" <ebass@martinmethodist.edu>
Subject: RE: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

We will make it work for you. We can move later into October, 2 or . We will find a nice date. So we are looking at September 17, 18, October 2, 8, 9, 11. Tell me what is OUT and we'll go from there. Thanks!

From: Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov <Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov>
Sent: Sunday, August 26, 2018 11:19 PM
To: Judy B Cheatham <jcheatham@martinmethodist.edu>
Cc: William L. Gibbons (wgibbons) <wgibbons@memphis.edu>; jhenryjr@pulaskilaw.com; Elizabeth D. Bass <ebass@martinmethodist.edu>
Subject: Re: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

I will confer with Bill. He is harder to get than I am. October 1 will not work. I have to be in Cincinnati that date. And I know September 24 is out for Bill. He has a conference in Birmingham. I hope we can do one of the other dates.

Sent from my iPhone

On Aug 26, 2018, at 11:00 PM, Judy B Cheatham <jcheatham@martinmethodist.edu> wrote:
Well, we need a date for our lecture! Sorry to be so tardy. We have a huge accreditation package that goes in the mail this coming Friday; it has preoccupied us for the full summer. But I am back in the land of the living, so moving right along...

How are we for the 17th, 18th, or 24th of September? We could also move to October 1 if you wanted to. Are all four clear? I wanted to ask you first. We would have a dinner from 5:00-6:30 in Reveille, and then walk over to the Gault for the lecture, which lasts from 7-8:15. Last year, Bill Koch presented on the Blanton scandal; Joe introduced the event, then introduced the speaker. After the lecture, he and Bill took questions and did a little back and forth. Afterwards, we hosted a reception upstairs in the gallery of Gault.

Have you two thought of your topic? How you would like to structure the evening?

You will also want to tell us if you want to invite any personal guests for dinner. Last year, we had the LaBranches, the Henry families, their partner and his wife, Byron, Connie Clark, 4 faculty and 4 or 5 students.

Julia and Bill, certainly give us your list. Julia, let me know if you want to invite Nancy Howell. (I will tell her she can spend the night with me, if need be.) We have space for a total of about 24-28 in the parlor in Reveille.

Also, let me know if we want a quick conference call. Julia and Bill, my number is 202 460 9209; feel free to call me at any time.

Hope to hear from you soon.

From: William L. Gibbons (wgibbons) <wgibbons@memphis.edu>
Sent: Wednesday, June 13, 2018 11:14 AM
To: Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov; Judy B Cheatham <jcheatham@martinmethodist.edu>
Subject: Re: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

Judy,

I believe you mentioned that it would need to be either a Tuesday or Thursday evening. At this point, I can make any of those evenings work during the last two weeks of September. (I may need to get a guest lecturer for my class, but that should not be a problem.)

Bill Gibbons
Executive Director
Public Safety Institute

<image001.jpg>

The University of Memphis
317 Robison Hall
Memphis, TN 38152

901.385-4232 | memphis.edu

From: Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov <Julia_Gibbons@ca6.uscourts.gov>
Sent: Wednesday, June 13, 2018 10:07 AM
To: Judy B Cheatham
Cc: bill.koch@NSL.law; jhenryjr@pulaskilaw.com; Debby Koch; Mark LaBranche; Bill Gibbons; William L. Gibbons (wgibbons)
Subject: Re: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, 2018, in celebration of Constitution Day

Thanks, Judy. The first step seems to be a date. September is really clear for me. I have things two weekends, but otherwise the coast is clear. I copied Bill so you would have his emails and so that he could chime in about his availability. I am always excited about being in Pulaski and at Martin. It was great to meet Dr. LaBranche Sunday. Byron had sent him a note about me, which was nice. We are looking forward to working with you on this event. Sent from my iPhone

On Jun 12, 2018, at 11:39 PM, Judy B Cheatham <jcheatham@martinmethodist.edu> wrote:
Hi, everybody,

Just last week, I had reviewed my notes about the Justice Henry Lecture Series. As Joe and Julia will remember (Julia, I am sorry—I don't have your Bill's email, so please share if you would), when we met together the very first time about 18 months ago in Ford Conference Room, we talked about Julia and Bill presenting for the second annual REVIVED series. Everybody thought it would wonderful if Bill Koch would agree to present the first one, and then the Gibbons said that they would present at the second. Serendipitously, Julia and Bill were at church last Sunday morning, and we spoke about this very issue; they also met Dr. LaBranche. I promised Julia and Bill on Sunday that I would write us all—I know you Kochs, Gibbons, and Henrys are longtime friends—about the second year's lecture. As we plan for the next Constitution Day Celebration featured at the Justice Henry Lecture Annual Lecture Series, Julia, in the email below you can see the schedule we followed.

I copied Bill and Debby because I thought they might have advice to share about the presentation or answer questions about the audience. AND of course we would love for them to come to dinner. I copied Joe because I felt he might have ideas or advice to share as well. Bill had a power point about the Blanton/Alexander change of office. It was fascinating; the auditorium was standing room only. As you see below, Mark welcomed the audience. Joe introduced the speaker and he also gave a brief bio of Justice Henry; Bill spoke; then Joe and Bill moderated questions. It was a wonderful evening.

Julia and Bill, there is no rush on a topic. We do need to set a date—needs to be the last two weeks of September, if possible—and go from there. Julia and Bill, now you have a group with which to discuss ideas if you need it. Mark and I will help with anything or everything, as much as you need. Byron Trauger, you all know, is our board chair; he too thought last year's event was wonderful, so he could also be a sounding board, Julia and Bill.

Anyway, just getting the ball rolling tonight. Julia and Bill, it was delightful to see you again. DEBBY and Bill, I miss you. Joe, when we all meet again, you will have to tell our group about our new neighbor and her boyfriend. More later, but until then...

Very best regards,
Judy

From: Judy B Cheatham
Sent: Monday, September 4, 2017 2:38 PM
To: 'Debby Koch' <debbykoch@comcast.net>; 'bill.koch@NSL.law' <bill.koch@NSL.law>; jhenryjr@pulaskilaw.com
Cc: Judy B Cheatham <jcheatham@martinmethodist.edu>; David Jones <djones@martinmethodist.edu>
Subject: plans for the Justice Henry Lecture Series, Thursday evening, Sept 28, 2017, in celebration of Constitution Day

Good afternoon, friends,

David and I are really excited about our upcoming event on the 28th. A few questions related to details:

1. Dinner, about 5:15 or so. We'd like to host a little dinner in Reveille before the discussion. Bill and Debby, this is the wonderful house the college bought last year and have now renovated—it's twin is Bob Sweeney's house on W. 7th. Joe and Ann have been in it. It is just lovely. We thought that between you two couples, you might have a few friends you'd like to invite. Of course we'll invite the Traugers. We will invite our history faculty and a couple of students as well. Debby, is there anybody from Columbia you'd like to invite? I was also thinking we ought to invite Houston and Suzanne. Joe, whom would you and Ann like to include? And we want to include Julia and Bill; the meeting with them got this whole thing going. You may remember that Julia said she would really like to start a program in leadership. Her husband told her that she was still working and that she did not have time right this minute. Well, I had heard about the Justice Henry lecture series and asked them right there if that might be something they would enjoy participating in until they had more time to commit.

Of course we know everybody won't be able to come but we would really enjoy this, I am sure. We have space for about 20. If you will let me and David know, we will get out invitations.

2. Presentation, 7:00. Joe, the last time we spoke, we had talked about your serving as the moderator; Mark LaBranche (our new president, Debby and Bill) would do the welcome; introduce JOE; JOE introduce Bill; and Bill, you would tell the story. At the end, JOE would respond and then open the floor for questions. Do I have that right? Bill or Joe, do you need anything? Would you need technology?

3. Talking to students. After the presentation. Several of our students will be thrilled to have the opportunity to speak with the both of you. If the presentation begins at 7, I would imagine it would conclude about 8:15 or 8:30. That would leave time to mingle with students. We'd like to do a reception afterwards. Certainly our audience would leave by 9:00. I have asked faculty to prepare their classes for the event. You may get questions about the Constitution, the senator, Mr. Blanton, law school, politics, Trump, who knows. Just an fyi.

4. What else? What have I omitted or neglected to mention, folks? Just let me know.

Looking forward to it! David and I are excited, and we hope you are as well.

Irrr